

Vacancy Announcement

(Date of publication: 06 June 2019)

SEED-Nepal is a leading Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) in Nepal in the field of Resource Efficient Cleaner Production (RECP) and Productivity Enhancement for Industrial Sector contributing to Sustainable Economic Development, Better Environmental Performances and Better Quality of Life. Currently we have the requirement of one Local consultant for the purpose of implementing an on-going SWITCH ASIA PROJECT: "Resource efficient supply chain for metal products in buildings sector in South Asia (METABUILD)" in Nepal.

Position: Local Consultant (No. of opening: 1)

Term: approximately 6 months fixed term)

The Local Consultant will have to implement RECP in the metal industries and also to follow-up the activities carried out earlier with regard to RECP especially in the areas of resource optimization, energy efficiency, cleaner production, waste management and workers' safety; Follow the instructions of international and local senior technical experts in the course of implementation of RECP at various metal related SMEs; own prior knowledge and experience, analyses findings and elaborates technical report; support the implementation of the recommended measures; sometimes also playing the role of translator/interpreter.

Qualification and Experience

- Bachelor degree in Mechanical, Chemical, Industrial, Electrical or Environmental Engineering or Environmental Science. The candidate with higher degree will be given preference.
- Candidates should have knowledge related to Resource Efficient and Cleaner Production (RECP), industrial environment and pollution, energy efficiency, Occupational Health and Safety aspects in industries
- At least two years of experience in RECP, environmental assessment or audit and/or consulting in industrial sector in the country

Requirements:

- Good English (speaking and writing); teaching ability/secure behavior
- Good local language/ (speaking and writing)
- Good working knowledge of MS office (word, excel, ppt)
- Ability to independently work on project reporting and communication (should have access to computer and internet)
- Good communication skills, diligence
- Willingness to travel
- Ability to work in team is important
- Entrepreneurial ability will be given preference
- Women are encouraged to apply

Interested and qualified candidates must submit the cover application letter with updated Curriculum Vitae (CV) to SEED Nepal office by email to info@seednepal.org not later than 12 June 2019.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for further selection process. SEED Nepal reserves the right to reject any or all application(s) without stating any reason whatsoever.